Automobile Licenses.

Up to yesterday noon 1918 licenses had been issued to 1,500 automobile owners in Lincoln county, and Treasurer Souder estimated that there are 1,000 owners who have not yet paid the tax.

Last year 2000 licenses were issued to Lincoln county owners of autos and trucks, and of course machines are being sold every day. Many of the more substantial farmers and stockmen own more than one car. They use a Ford for general run about work, a big car for family use and in some instances have in addition a truck.

One garage man remarked the other day that he believed that during 1918 almost as many trucks as cars would be sold to farmers. The men on the farms are beginning to learn of the great convenience and saving of time that comes from owning a truck.

Cochran Had Nice Trip.

Lieut. R. L. Cochran, writing to the Tribune from a point somewhere in France or England, under date of January 5th, says: "Had a very nice trip outside of a little sea sickness and sleeping in my clothes for a few nights. The weather here is not extremely cold, but extremely damp and everybody from the states feels it until they become acclimated."

I have not seen any American news or American tobacco since I left New York. You can't get either here. Don't like the English tobacco. Expect to soon go across (probably meaning to the trenches.) Have not been in London yet.

Give my regards to all friends."

Bridge Bids Too High.

Bids for the construction of the concrete bridge across the river south of town were opened Tuesday afternoon by the county commissioners in the presence of State Engineer Johnson and his assistant and nearly a score of bidders and material men. Nine bids were on file, the lowest of which was $3,000 above the amount of the bonds voted, namely, forty thousand dollars. All the bids were rejected and new bids asked. The date for filing new bids is on or before nine o'clock a. m., February 27th.

Steals Overcoat, Pleads Guilty.

Jack Pitts was arrested Wednesday on the charge of stealing a fur overcoat from E. E. Fagins, of McPherson county. Fagins left the overcoat in the car while around town transacting business, and when he returned preparatory to starting home found the coat missing. Suspicion pointed to Pitts and he was arrested. In court he pleaded guilty and was fined fifty dollars and costs. He was short of funds and elected to lay out the fine and costs in the county jail.

Travel and Study Club Meets.

The Travel and Study club met Monday evening at the home of Miss Villa Whittaker and devoted the evening to reading magazine articles. Miss Watta read an article on "Seattle and the Northwest." Mrs. Rincker's article was "The Russian Movement Toward Freedom," and "The Woman who Challenged a Nation" was read by Miss Stamp. Extracts from a letter written by Miss Alice Plumer, a former member of the club now living in California were read.

Engineer H. N. Smith failed to get his application for retirement before the pension board in time for the January meeting and it will go over to April meeting. In the meantime he will continue to "drag along."

Mrs. Huxoll Wins Suit.

Mrs. Ella Huxoll, through her attorneys Hoagland & Hoagland, received word Wednesday that the United States supreme court had affirmed the decision of the appellate court in her damage suit against the Union Pacific for $20,000. The judgment carries with it about $7,000 in interest making the total sum $27,000.

The case grew out of the death of Mrs. Huxoll's husband, Engineer Fred Huxoll, in the Sidney yards on Jan. 1st, 1911, when he was run down by a switch engine during a blinding snow storm.

Soon after his death Mrs. Huxoll, instituted suit for $20,000 damages and the case had since been pending in the different courts.

Chicken Men Awarded Prizes.

L. F. Simon who took a pen of Blue Orpington chickens to the State Poultry show at Holdrege carried away all the awards on that class of birds, which is quite a record for a grower when the great number of fowls that were on exhibition is considered.

At the Denver show J. A. McDonald took sweepstake honors on his Light Brahma pullet and first prize on his Ligh Brahma cock. Mr. McDonald has been in Denver attending the show.

Ex-Conductor Smith Dies.

Eber H. Smith, for many years a passenger conductor on the Omaha-North Platte run, and who for a time made North Platte his home, died in Omaha the early part of this week at the age of sixty-two. He is survived by his wife, son Claude who lives at Sioux City and daughter Mrs. Burton, who resides in California. The deceased entered the railroad service in 1879. The burial was at Fremont.

Dr. Walter Crook, Says Keep Your Teeth Clean.

You should not use large wooden tooth picks, but silk floss thread is much better. Toothpicks cause inflamed gum tissues, and in many cases cause the gum to recede from the roots of the teeth.

Use mouth washes daily as disinfectants. It is not necessary to employ the same kind always, a change will be a rest. Be sure the tarter is not permitted to remain around the teeth or underneath the gum margin, because this acts as a harbor for the bacterial growth and this may cause Pyorrhea. Pyorrhea makes the gums blue and soggy afterwards causing you too loose your teeth, all through neglect of keeping them clean.

I have one of the BEST Equipped Dental Offices in the middle west, all built especially for YOU, have shared no expense in fitting my office to be strictly modern and sanitary in every respect.

Any size Bridge made and set the same day, ALSO full set of teeth made in ONE day. Out of town patients given special attention, so you will not have to make so many trips.

I use Sonnoform for the Painless Extraction of teeth and guarantee this method to be safe and no bad after effects. All work is guaranteed to be satisfactory.
